PREAMBLE

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) is the means by which members of the profession (therein known as counsellors) broaden the expertise required in their professional lives. This serves to ensure that both academic and practical qualifications do not become obsolete and redundant, thus allowing them to continuously upgrade. This booklet shall be legal property of Zimbabwe Association of Family Therapists and Professional Counsellors (ZAFTPC) in collaboration with the Allied Health Professions Council of Zimbabwe (AHPCZ). Below are possible activities to enhance professional development.

- Lecturing/Attending Lectures
- Training Workshops
- Additional qualification (relevant to the profession)
- Publishing articles in refereed journals
- Attending and Participating in Conferences
- Supervision
- Peer reviews
- Community service
- Professional growth

The minimum CPD points will be fifty (50) per year to facilitate transition, registration and renewal of practicing certificates.
